

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Lillian Moore was born to Oliver and Grace Moore on August 27, 1911; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Lillian attended the Flandreau Indian school, graduating in the first "senior" class of graduates in 1931. Following graduation, Lillian enrolled in the North Dakota State School of Science in Wahpeton and graduated with a Business Degree in 1934; and,

Whereas, Lillian married Syd Beane, and to this union three children were born, Linda, William and Sydney; and,

Whereas, For 32 years, Lillian worked for the Bureau of Indian Affairs until she retired in 1974. Lillian is the oldest tribal member residing on the Flandreau Santee Sioux Reservation; and,

Whereas, Lillian will observe her 100th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and family gather to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 27, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join her friends and relatives in wishing her a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
